DESCRIPTION

 7a. Architectural style: Bungalow
 7b. Briefly describe the present physical description of the site or structure and describe any major alterations from its original condition:

Legal: Gulick Tract, Blk 2, Lot 4
This one story symmetrical bungalow features a medium, street-facing gable roof with wide eaves, exposed rafter ends and knee braces. An enclosed porch with a matching, but smaller gable roof, is entered on the facade. This porch may have been open at one time centered on the facade. but now has a door at the center and multiple pane windows filling the openings. Other details of the house include narrow, horizontal clapboard siding, an exterior brick chimney on the left side, and a blind triangular dormer on the right side. Windows on the right side of the house have exterior louvers for sun protection. There is also a louvered trellis shading the porch on the right side.
